September 2021 Newsletter

Dear LACLJ Supporter,

This month I celebrated my second anniversary with LACLJ, and I thought I would take this time and share a bit of insight into this fantastic work that I get to do every day! One of the most meaningful successes this past year was our ability to continue our services to survivors during the pandemic because of your unwavering support. Although we faced the uncertainty of funding, you stepped up and supported our work. And this past year, we served over 900 survivors!

When I joined LACLJ two years ago, I was impressed with the passion and commitment of our board and staff. We've harnessed that passion and commitment to building an even stronger organization that is more integrated and responsive to survivors' needs. The pandemic taught us to challenge the status-quo and find creative solutions. Clients no longer have to take time off work, find child care, or even make their way to our offices to receive services. They can connect with their attorney virtually and receive the same high quality dedication and passion as ever before!

We have many exciting plans for this upcoming year, and I am looking forward to more opportunities to connect with you. Your gift is truly life-changing for survivors, and I am so grateful that you continue to partner with us!

Warmly,

YEISON'S RADIO GUEST FEATURE

LACLJ Immigration Attorney, Yeison Soto Valdez, has been featured in two more episodes on Alianza Podcasts this summer! The series "Alianza contra la violencia domestica" features information for survivors on safety and immigration relief.

The show has a reach of over 70,000 regular listeners and has been a great opportunity to educate the immigrant community about our services. Thank you Yeison for spreading the word and informing survivors about their rights and resources!
